Notice.

The public are hereby informed that a Company has been formed under the title of THE QUANTICO WAREHOUSE COMPANY, who have erected, one mile below the town of Dumfries, a large and convenient Warehouse on Quantico creek, for the storage of flour, grain, etc. which warehouse will be ready for the reception of produce on Monday the third of Feb. next. The trustees of said Company have appointed Zebulon Kankey their Agent to attend the said Warehouse, to receive produce on storage and grant receipts for the same. And for the prompt delivery of all articles received in the said warehouse by their agent, (fire alone excepted) the Company hold themselves bound. All persons depositing flour, grain, etc. must pay, before taken away, the following storage, viz. For each barrel of flour 6 cents; if it remains in said warehouse over 1 month 8 cents; & in the same proportion for the time it may remain. For each bushel of wheat or other grain two cents; if it remains over one month three cents; and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. And for all articles of merchandise a reasonable storage only will be demanded. Persons storing flour may have it inspected, or not, at their option. If not inspected, the agent's receipt will specify the brand and the state of the barrels. The weight of one bushel wheat, running measure of each load or parcel of wheat. All articles stored, the same to be returned to the owner when called for, be it flour, wheat, other grain, etc. Customary allowances for wastage, etc. excepted.

Quantico Warehouse is situated on Quantico Creek, only two miles from its junction with the Potomac river, at all times navigable for lighters. There are belonging to this creek a sufficient number of lighters to ensure a brisk transportation down the creek of all articles stored. Vessels may be got to take produce to the district of Columbia, Baltimore, Norfolk, or elsewhere. The present freights are—To the district twelve and half cents per barrel of flour and to Baltimore and Norfolk 25 cents from the mouth of Quantico. The proximity of this warehouse to a large extent of country, added to the goodness of roads leading to it from the westward being little inferior to paved ones. It being found by actual survey little more than 25 miles from Hay Market to Dumfries, will, it is confidently believed by the trustees, by this rout greatly lessen the expense of transportation of produce even to the district of Columbia, and they pledge themselves to the public to use every means within their power to give satisfaction.

Virginia Legislature.

On Saturday, the house of delegates passed a bill respecting the arrearages of the land tax.—This bill repeals the former obnoxious law in many of its most important features, and allows the land which was sold to be restored to the former proprietors, the purchaser receiving his purchase money, with 50per cent. interest.

A motion was made in senate to reconsider the convention bill, which had been rejected. After a long argument, the motion was lost.

The bill for equalizing the representation in the senate and also equalizing the land tax, was then taken up and most ably urged It was finally passed about sundown, ayes 10, noes 8.

LONDON, Nov. 27.

Several English gentlemen of distinction were present at the British ambassador's at Paris. when M de Talleyrand made his vehement sortie against the French ministers—— Mr. Canning the Earl of Mansfield, Mr Tierney, and others. Our correspondent states, that M de Talleyrand complained of the inconsistency of the King's conduct. The next morning M. de Talleyrand received a letter from the duke de la Charte, signifying the Kings' pleasure to him that he should no appear at court again. It is said he will also be deprived of his post as Chamberlain.

The Duke de la Chartre, first gentleman of the Chamber addressed yesterday evening the following letter to M de Talleyrand:

"Sir—In consequence of the public conversation which you held with the President of the Chamber of Deputies in the house of the Ambassador of a foreign power. I inform you that his majesty ha ordered me to notify to you, that you need not again present yourself at court."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15.

West India Intelligence.

We have been favored with a file of the Curacoa Courant to the fourth of January—from which we have selected the following:

CURACOA, Dec. 21.

By an arrival from St. Thomas we have collected the following items of intelligence:

A french frigate had arrived at Port-au Prince from France, with proposals from the king, and a request that France might enjoy free commerce with the Presidency of Hayti. The nature of the proposals we have not learnt, but understand they were not acceded to.

A French merchant vessel had arrived at St Thomas, from Bordeaux said to have 30,000 stand of arms on board.—Several officers, who served under Bonaparte, among whom is the 1st aid de-camp of Mu at, had also arrived at that island. It was supposed they would join the insurgents on the Main.

Three sloops and a felucca, one from Margarita, and the others from Aux Cayes, were cruising off St. Thomas, which were constantly annoying the Spanish trade with that Island and St. Croix.

The following is an extract from a journal kept by a gentleman on board the American schooner Friendship, Shain, master, from which it will be seen that she was four times detained and twice plundered during her passage to this port.

Sailed from the Deleware on the 25th of November. Nothing material until Sunday Dec. 1st, lat. 30, 50, long 69, 60, at 10 A M. saw three sail about 4 leagues distant, bearing S W. they were standing east, they then altered their course and stood S S. E. About half past two they came up within about two miles of us. and hoisted Spanish colours and fired a gun at us, the shot fell short. We then hoisted our colours, and when they saw them they shewed English colours, and fired at us another gun.—We then stood away before the wind. The second brig then fired at us, but his shot also fell short. We run from them until half past three, when finding that they gained upon us very fast, we hove to; the foremost brig then came up within a quarter of a mile, and fired a well directed shot, which fell within ten yards of our quarter. He then sent his boat on board with six men, each of them armed with a musket and cutlass, and began plundering the vessel of small stores, live stock, some chairs, a pair of pistols and our clothing They were two brigs and a ship; one of the brigs mounted 12 guns; the force of the ship and other brig not known —They told us that they were Spanish merchantmen from the Havanna bound to Malaga —They said that the brig was called the Guadaloupe. and was owned in Malaga. At about 5 P. M. they left us, and stood to the eastward.—Monday Dec. 2. spoke three Spanish ships, one a letter of marque, they were from Havanna, bound to Cadiz. We told them that we had been plundered by three vessels, which we described, they said that they were from the Havanna bound to the coast of Africa. one was the brig Malaga, the other was called the Montserat — Dec. 11, off St. Thomas was boarded by a felucca, under Spanish colours; she was not more than twenty tons, but had on board 50 men. They took from us beef & pork, a barrel of read. and our boat, &c. They also took captain Shain's watch, and several articles which I do not recollect. They gave to Captain Shain an order, which reads as follows:

"To his Excellency the governor of Curacoa. Pay to captain Shain or to his order, for 1 barrel of bread, 6 geese, and one boat, had by his Majesty's felucca Francois, on a cruise off St Thomas the 11th of December 1816.

"For Don Antonio Guizalo,

"Able Longman, 1st Lieut.

Dec. 14, off Bonaire at 2 o'clock saw twelve sail, soon made them out to be 5 ships and 7 brigs; two brigs stood for us, and one of them fired a gun; we hoisted our American colours and stood for them; they hoisted Carthagenian colours At 2 P M. they came close alongside and sent their boat on board; they told us they were from Aux Cayes, they examined us closely and then sent captain Shain on board the brig. Having examined him, and finding that we were not concerned either with patriots or royalists, they hoisted Spanish colours, & said that they were king's vessels looking for the insurgents. It is impossible to say what they were. They treated us politely.

December, 28.

From Laguira we learn, that accounts had been received in Caracas on Friday last, from General Morillo, announcing his arrival at Trusido from St. Fe, escorted by 250 cavalry the remainder of his army, under Calzada, having taken the route to Barines where the advanced guard had arrived. The regiment of Victoria, commanded by Col. dede Torre, consisting of 1000 men was one days march in the rear of Calzada. Reyes Marques, was in San Fernando where he had been five times attacked by the Independent General Urdaneta, but succeeded in repulsing him each time, and who was supposed to have withdrawn in consequence of the approach of 800 Royalists, under Gorin. It is computed that the troops of the King thus approaching towards the capital, amounts to nearly 10,000 men.

Captain Lowth left the following American vessels at La Guyra on the 19th inst. time of sailing uncertain: brigs America, Howard, Philadelphia; Romp, Davis, Boston: schooner James Monroe, Martin, Baltimore.

January 4th.

By the schr John, from St. Domingo we learn that eleven vessels of the fleet which lately left La Guira, consisting of thirteen sail, were forced to put into the above port in consequence of a gale which they encountered on the 22d ult. Of the two vessels missing, one is said to have gone to Coro, but the other has not been accounted for. An embargo was laid on the vessels in the port immediately on their arrival, which lasted for eight days, when the whole sailed again for Spain.

It was reported at St. Domingo, that eleven armed vessels had been fitted out at Port au Prince, but any particulars relative to their having sailed, or their destination had not transpired

The American brig Edwin, of N York was cast away in the gale of the 23d ult. on the island of Savona. The crew escaped, and it was expected that part of the cargo would be recovered.

Extract of a letter from General Mina to a gentleman in Baltimore, dated Glavestown, Dec. 23, 1816.

"Shall I relate to you my misfortunes*" Yet none have happened which are capable of destroying my enterprize or my courage; and I feel confident that I will be able to surmount the difficulties which till now have stopped my progress.

The accounts received from the interior are either satisfactory or they are promising; and cannot describe my anxiety to be among those brave patriots.

From the New York Evening Post.

Refuted Calumny.—Mr John G. Jackson, one of the members of Congress from Virginia, and brother-in-law to the president, in a late speech, which was noticed by a correspondent in Tuesday's paper, stigmatised the body of American merchants with having "traitorously abandoned the cause of the country and turned their force and power against it" This calumny was, to our astonishment and mortification, permitted to pass in the house, without a reply and without, as I have heard, even a frown of disapprobation: This, I must presume, was owing to that generous spirit of conciliation that actuates the breasts of the federal gentlemen there, but to which, it should be remembered, there are bounds, beyond which it should not be extended, nor can be without a degree of manifest injustice to themselves and their friends. The instance, before us, perhaps is one, A brief recapitulation of facts with which we are all conversant, will put down this undeserved reproach.

In the year 1806, as mentioned by Mr Jackson, it is true the merchants laid their memorials before congress on the subject of the colonial trade, urging the adoption of measures to protect that trade and pledging their fortunes and their lives to support their country in the course it should take. It was also true that Messrs. Monroe and Pinkney, being instructed on the subject, did in December of the same year frame and sign a treaty at London, by the 11th article of which, the subject of the trade in question was arranged in a manner perfectly satisfactorily to them and to the American merchants, may in a much more advantageous manner than they were authorised by Mr Jefferson's own instructions to obtain, as appears from Mr. Monroe's letter written and published in 1808 and now before me But this treaty was afterwards contumeliously rejected by Mr. Jefferson on his own responsibility and sent back again without even the formality of laying it before the constituted authorities. Upon turning to the objections, with which he accompanied the rejection, those to the 11th article appears to be only verbal.

This is a correct history of that transaction. It was for the protection of the colonial trade, a subject, of which they were perfectly competent to judge and the best judges, that they called on their government to interpose and protect them, pledging their lives and fortunes to support that government in turn, The single memorial from Salem, coupled the topic of impressment.* When therefore, we read the charge in Mr. Jackson's speech, that as soon as they found the government declared war on their account, "the merchants abused it, abandoned its cause and traitorously turned their force and power against the country," we are absolutely lost in astonishment. It is a gross and palpable misrepresentation of the fact. Whatever else was the cause, or the declared cause, of the war, it is certain the colonial trade, sole object of the memorials was not; & I appeal to every man who reads this article, for the truth of the statement, the merchants throughout the U. S were to a man oppoed to it. What Mr. Jackson means precisely when he says, the merchants turned their force and power against the government, it is not easy to conjecture; if he means they refused to engage in the public loans, that has been already so completely answered by our well informed correspondent in Tuesday's paper, that no thing further remains to be said.

ALEXANDRIA.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20.

Extract of a letter from Princeton, dated the 15th inst. to a gentleman in this town.

"Knowing your warm friendship to this venerable seat of science, I am persuaded it will afford you pleasure to learn, that the letter which I wrote on the 23d ult. gives in several respects a more unfavorable view of the late riotous proceedings in college, than the result is found to warrant. That letter was written amidst all the excitement and agitation of the passing scene, when it was extremely difficult to discriminate between rumor and fact. The number of students so far implicated in the rebellion, as to require their dismission, now appears much less than at one time there seemed reason to fear. Of more than 130, the number before the unhappy scene began, 96 are now in college pursuing their studies as usual. Upon further investigation, too, it appears that the faculty consider themselves as having satisfactory proof of the disorderly behaviour of all the dismissed. The injury done to the building is also considerably less than was at first apprehended, and the whole edifice has been some days since placed in its usual state of repair. It is even doubted by some whether any serious attempt was made to burn the college; in other words, whether the fact which gave rise to that part of the statement, was any thing more than an attempt to excite a temporary alarm, or to deface a single room. All is quiet again, and it is hoped the result will be much less disastrous than many feared."

Mr. Snowden,

I have for some years been an observer of the conduct of some of our citizens, with regard to the members of council and other officers of the town, and I am sometimes at a loss to know what they would be at. At first view it would appear that they wanted such men as are not to be found in this state of being; I mean such as are incapable of doing wrong; they are elected this year, and next year they must go out, because they have done wrong another set must take their places; they do as did those who preceded them with a few exceptions, and they share the same fate. And for what? why to be sure they have done either too much or too little; the former appears to be the charge against the mayor and present council. One says that the town was never known to be in a worse state of corruption than it now is, and it comes from the same source; that the mayor and others have been extra-prompt in the cause of morality, which perhaps is as good a way as any to account for the knowledge of the corruption. But who are they that complain most? Are they not those whose craft is most in danger? I mean that by which they have their wealth. In taking this view of the subject, it reminds me of a sermon that I once heard; the preacher was shewing the inconsistencies of those opinions which he was combatting; he observed that the preaching of the advocates of these opinions amounted to this: you will, and you wont, you can, and you cant, you'll be damned if you do you'll be damned if you don't. So it appears that our rulers must be served, let them do good or do bad, do right or do wrong, make good laws or bad laws, enforce them or let them be a dead letter, it is all the same, they must be damned.

A SUBSCRIBER.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

February 19.

The question of repealing the internal Taxes, has been brought before the House of Representatives, in so many different shapes for the last three days, and has in every one of them been so partially received, that it would be the extreme of incredulity to doubt that the measure will pass into a law. Yesterday a motion made by Mr. Bateman of New-Jersey to postpone the resolution indefinitely, was rejected by a very large majority, the votes being taken by ayes and noes—ayes 59, noes 94. To the astonishment of all who had concluded from his own formal annunciation of it, that he had ceased to speak, and no doubt to the great pleasure of most persons present, Mr. Randolph appeared in the house, summoned by this extraordinary event, and made a very long and a very amusing as well as able speech in favour of the repeal. It seemed to have renovated his strength, brought down lately by several days indisposition, and to have carried him back to what he would call the good days; when he and the disciples of Mr. Jefferson did the same kind office to the fiscal measures of Mr. Adams, which the present years opposition are doing to the current administration; in truth he seemed uncommonly animated, and reminded me of the old soldier in Goldsmith's deserted village, who "Shoulder'd his crutch and shew'd how fields were won."

The resolution has not yet passed; but there is no doubt that it will this morning be adopted; and that a bill for carrying its object into effect, will pass through this house at least, is as little to be questioned. I own to you that I feel no exultation at this business. Perhaps I do not understand it. Before it comes to a close I shall have grounds more relative for forming a judgment on it, and will not fail to communicate to you my sentiments on this subject; in the meantime I shall barely announce to you the proceedings as they take place.

From the Charleston (S. C.) S. Patriot, Feb. 10

"The following account of a most unwarranted outrage is attested by the passengers of the sloop Gen. Jackson. Feb. 1, 1817, lat 25, 30, N. Cape Florida bearing N. W. 5 leagues distant, in sight, passed to windward of a Spanish brig and ship, within musket shot; the brig pierced for 18 to 20 guns, and from her manoeuvring appeared to have the ship under her convoy. Feb. 2, at 2, P. M. the wind inclining to the N. E. and blowing fresh, tacked ship and stood to the E. S. E. in order to get an offing from the Florida shore, the before mentioned sail in sight, under our lee bow. At 7, P. M. when within gun shot of them, was fired at by the brig, the ball passing within a few yards of us, hove up to speak her; we hailed her and told her that we were an American vessel from New-Orleans bound to Charleston; but she still kept up her fire upon us. At a loss for some moments what to make of her conduct, we finally concluded to haul off from her on the opposite tack, and did so, and when out of musket shot, hauled down our jib and lay to, upon which the brig wore and stood for us; hailed us "From whence came you?" we answered from New-Orleans bound to Charleston; he then commenced abusing us in the most billingsgate language.

Upon the ship's coming up, the brig gave us another shot (we then lying to under his lee within twenty yards) which passed just above the head of the helmsman, passing through the foot of the mainsail. After some conversation had taken place between them, the brig gave us a third shot, and hailed us, asking now dare we to chase two vessels at night? We replied we did not chase, but tacked to avoid getting on the Floridas. He then told us not to do so again, and that we might proceed on our course, which we accordingly did. At sunrise they were both in sight about two miles astern."

Public Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale his ESTABLISHMENT on the north side of Cameron street, situated on the centre of the square between the Bank of Alexandria and the City Tavern—consisting of a three story with two stories in the rear, the whole covered with slate and running in one range of buildings from the front 117 feet 6 inches. The house contains twelve rooms, (besides the store and cellars: 10 of them with fire places, some of them spacious and elegant, and few less than 15 by 18 feet in the clear, except one close room; one front and two back stairways, a kitchen with two fire places; with stoves for cooking, over which are servants' rooms, adjoining a pantry, smoke house and other necessary back buildings.

The cellars are large, floored and fitted up in the neatest manner, equal, if not superior to any in the district; the floor over which, is finished in the best style, and has been occupied for a length of time past as a fancy store, consisting of China, Delf, Glass and Hardware, &c. The cellars as a Wine Grocery and Spirit Store, &c.

The purchaser can have the goods on hand, which comprise a good assortment and have been carefully selected at cost.

On the house, so far, there has been expended and paid upwards of $12,000. Nearly 16 feet of the lot in front remains to be built on.

The buildings are insured and nearly complete in every particular, and on examination will be found to be an establishment equalled by few here or elsewhere.

About two thirds of the amount for house goods, &c. would be required in hand, or in approved notes at short date; on the remainder a long credit will be given.

He would wish, also, to sell, on a credit, or would barter for goods, or property in the district—two squares of two acres each, in the town of Jefferson, Ohio. Both squares join in with the public square, on which has been erected the market-house, court house, jail, etc.—The squares are divided into half squares, by 58 feet alleys, and to each half square there is attached 8 acres of land immediately adjoining the town, as town farms, and to each square the remaining 100 acres, further distant. This settlement is in a flourishing state, being the county and post town, situated on the river Grand, a short distance from Lake Erie, the soil rich and of first rate quality.

Should he not be able to effect the sales above stated in a short time, on liberal and fair terms, he would have no objection to take a partner in trade, who putting one third or one half the interest he holds in the concern, would reap a proportionable part of the profits in assisting to conduct the business.

WM. DUNLAP.

N. B. Arrangements might be made to accommodate a partner with the whole or part of the dwelling house if necessary.

NOTICE

The subscriber intending to remove from this place in a short time, requests all those indebted to him by bond, note or open account, to come forward & settle them up to first of January 1817.

He will dispose of the Houses & Lots he now occupies, and possession given the 15th October next. The dwelling house is calculated for the accommodation of a family, with all the necessary out houses, and a very productive garden. subject to a small ground rent—the stand for retailing goods, or purchase of produce, is inferior to none in town.

It is deemed unnecessary to give a more minute description, as it is presumed those wishing to purchase will view the premises.

He will also sell a quarter acre Lot and Dwelling House thereon, near the court house.

The above property will be disposed of on accommodating terms to those wishing to purchase.

GEORGE SMITH

Dumfries, January

Land for Sale.

A tract or parcel of Land, containing between two and three hundred acres, on the north side of Occoquan, in Fairfax county, about 5 miles west of Occoquan mills. It is well watered with never failing springs, it is also well timbered, and the great quantity of fur timber on it renders it the more valuable to any person in the coopering line. This land is of the middle soil, and produces corn, wheat or any other grain tolerable well—there is about 100 acres cleared and under good fence. The improvements are a large dwelling house & other out houses, and a good apple orchard of about sixty trees.

ALSO,

One other tract in the same county, within three miles of Occoquan, lying on Sandy Run, containing 47 acres—one half in cultivation and under good fence the remainder heavily timbered. There are on the premises an old framed dwelling house and out houses and an apple orchard of eighty bearing trees.

Any person inclining to purchase can view the premises and know the terms by applying to the subscriber who lives near them.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store. No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York.

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative: and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly innocent. It contains nothing but what is constitution innocent, and is also mild in its operation cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old. should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Teres, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of chint°—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hand the infant part of our citizens otherwise the mildest and m ce ain remedy known, and has restore oth health and strength a great numb when in an advanced stage of this fat complaint. Particular and plain instruc ions are given for every part of the ne essary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout asthmatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, whitswellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals, (the basis of other lotions) and of unparralled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural, insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent inoxication or any other destructive intemperance the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c

PAUL'S

Patent Columbian Oil.

In respect to which the Proprietor observes:—

"THE great sales of the Columbian Oil, since it has been brought before the public, prove its intrinsic value and is a pleasing foreboding of what we have to expect from its more extensive circulation.

Many interesting certificates might be furnished, testifying to the great value of the Columbian Oil, but we have preferred giving but few, wishing to rest more on the merits of the medicine, than on the effects produced by certificates from a source however respectable.

The following are among the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found very efficacious, viz. rheumatism, consumption, gout, pains in any part of the body, but more particularly of the back and breast; asthma, phthisic, influenza, colds, coughs, whooping cough, diseases of the eye and eye lids, tooth ache, ear ache, and deafness, cholic cramps, external and internal bruises sprains and flesh wounds, old sores, ulcers, felons, scalds, burns, mumps, dysentery or flux, croup, quinzy, diarhœa or lax, summer complaint of children, indigestion, loss of appetite, nervous debility, piles, mercurial diseases, especially in those cases where the system has been charged with mercury for some considerable time, and in those excruciating pains subsequent to its too great use and exposure. Herpes, or diseases of the skin, such as ring worms, tetters, scald head, &c. stiffness of joints and limbs, palsy ague and fever, cholera morbus, gravel, gleetes, obstructed urine, scurvy, and in almost all cases of a general or local nature.

We are aware that in recommending a medicine in so many diseases, the public safety on its guard, especially those who have not used the Oil, may be induced to question its virtues, but a disposition of this nature will soon be dissipated, when they are informed that a great proportion of the diseases are owing to the same general cause—And in those cases where the diseases differ materially in their nature, the effects produced are nearly the same, although not on the same principle.

A supply of the above just received and for sale by RICHARD H. LITTLE, Druggist, King street.

ON HAND,

Best Spanish Segars, and prime chewing Tobacco.
